FURMAN WON IN THRILLING GAME BY 4-3

Clemson Tigers Powerless Before Curves of Baptist Freshman of 20.

(Special to The Intelligencer.) Greenville, April 19.—With a Freshman, Bolling, not yet twenty years old in the box; with the first catcher out of the game, the second catcher also injured, and with left fielder Cain behind the bat, Furman won the greatest college baseball game seen here in several years from Clemson this afternoon by a score of 4 to 3. The contest was thrilling from start to finish. In the third inning Clemson had three on and none out. Two pop flies and a strike out got Bolling out of the hole. In the seventh Clemson scored three on two errors and a home run. In that same inning Furman scored four on four hits, and "inside baseball," one runner being "squeezed over." A feature of the game was a catch of what seemed a certain home run by Mobley, who raced back into deep center and got under the ball. Bolling struck out six men. The crowd was wildly enthusiastic from start to finish. By winning today Furman maintains a perfect percentage in the state championship contest.

The score:
Furman.....000 000 400—4 8 5
Clemson.....000 000 300—3 4 2
Batteries: Bolling and Cain; Anderson, Long and Harris.
Umpires, Mills and Vernon.
